

New York is one of the preeminent international financial and commercial centers in the world. As a result, it has a long, proud history as a major center for international arbitration. The courts in new York are experienced in enforcing the parties' freedom to choose arbitration, which is based on the recognition of the important role arbitration plays in international business transactions. As a result, there are substantial advantages to choosing New York as a venue for international arbitration proceedings.

See "Choose New York International Arbitration"...